

Help Us Protect Your Identity and Reduce Fraud

Applying for certificates on behalf of another person

If you are applying for a certificate on behalf of another person, you must provide the following:

- Identification for yourself (as outlined overleaf);
- Identification of the person who is entitled to the document as stated in the Registry's Certificate Access policy

AND

- A letter giving permission from the person entitled to the document.

Age of record exceptions

In recognition of the fact that the fraudulent use of certificates reduces with the age of the record, the identification requirements for historical certificates, ie, births older than 100 years, deaths older than 30 years and marriages older than 75 years, will not be required.

Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages

BDM-PH1 | MAV10 | DEC13/1000

Why are identification requirements needed?

Identity fraud involving the use of stolen, fictitious or altered identities to perpetrate serious criminal offences is a matter of growing community concern.

The Western Australian Registry recognises that certificates, and changes of name, help to establish a person's identity.

The Registry is committed to maintaining the security of its information by reducing the risk of certificates being wrongfully issued to people who may use them for fraudulent purposes.

Applicants are required to provide a range of commonly available documents to help establish their identity before being eligible to receive certificates or register a change of name.

Who can apply for a certificate?

Certificates held by the Registry contain sensitive and personal information and are therefore only available to those entitled to the certificate.

Information about the Registry's Certificate Access policy is available from www.bdm.dotag.wa.gov.au or phone the Registry on 1300 305 021.

Identification requirements

When applying for a Western Australian certificate, or a change of name, evidence of your identity must be provided.

You MUST provide at least three forms of identification:
